IBDO

Help when you need it

Faced with rapidly changing legislation and regulatory requirements, every international business needs to ensure it is in good corporate order, ensuring full compliance through the use of local knowledge and expertise.

Common challenges that we know businesses experience include:

Client challenge

Lack of visibility of the status of compliance work and up to date compliance confirmations including visibility of all documentation for each entity in scope including access to information during different time zones and core company information.

Lack of process in engaging with local expertise across multiple services, globally.

Lack of internal resource to manage complex COSEC compliance requirements and process which often are time consuming and burden your teams.

BDO solution

Our technology platform shows task information including compliance confirmations and documentation related to each entity within scope. Our technology platform provides real time access 24 hours a day.

Our solution offers an efficient and consistent process approach to delivery across all our global offices. With offices in 169 countries, BDO can provide a truly global COSEC service, ensuring local in-country expertise and knowledge is maximised.

With a single point of contact within our central team, we take on the burden of managing your compliance and reporting obligations and processes. Our team is experienced to manage complex reporting requirements effectively.

Technology

A workflow platform that delivers clear visibility and reporting

BDO portal

A web hosted solution, providing customised views and reporting dashboards that enable you to immediately view the current status of your global compliance. Our project and document management platform improves your control and operational efficiency and reduces your risk profile.

We can configure the platform to your specification, building collaborative workflows allowing our member firms and your local teams to interact, whilst providing oversight to your head office and the BDO coordination team in a centralised location.

The platform will assist both local teams and our central coordination team by providing a clear, up to date summary of all work in scope. Key milestones within our scope of work are loaded into the workflow engine to drive the process, identify risks and highlight items requiring attention.

Wider global compliance

Additional entities and service lines can easily be added to the platform at any time, whether our team is assisting in the completion and coordination of these services, or if they are completed in-house.

Underpinning global visibility

Is accessible by both our clients and BDO team members regardless of time or location.

01

Contains all key tasks, milestones and compliance obligations in scope by entity providing transparent monitoring of progress by all team members.

02

Supports our relationship by providing access to all relevant data and documents in one place.

03

Provides a permanent record of the information used, the review process undertaken and the source of information used for each process.

04

Offers a live Entity Information Database, providing you with an up to date summary of each entity's incorporation information, local obligations, director details and much more.

05

Strict security settings ensure each user has access to only the information you specify, protecting confidential data.

The international BDO network

Delivering consistently across the globe

In an ever-evolving economic environment, businesses need a global organisation that provides exceptional, bespoke service combined with local knowledge and expertise. We're uniquely positioned to serve this demand, providing effective support and a truly integrated global footprint, under one International Services Agreement (ISA).

Global client service standards

Every BDO member firm is committed to providing consistently high-quality service delivery. We put this commitment into practice through the demanding client service standards that all our member firms are required to meet. We have also implemented a global Net Promoter Score programme to gather client feedback.

Sector expertise combined with technical efficiency

Our member firms' sector focus is overlaid by BDO's technical efficiency and active global sector programme. The main objective is to develop strong sector teams that work efficiently together across borders. This means easy access to sector experts and their experience across the network.

Sharing best practice

A sharing of best practice, as well as specific training, across our network both improves the quality of our service and promotes the cost-efficient development of our clients' business across borders.

International quality assurance review programme

The quality of our firms' local and referred professional work is evaluated through an International Quality Assurance Review programme. This is backed up by an accreditation process, carried out every 18 months.
