ABOUT BDO NOT FOR PROFIT

Encompassing charities, education, social housing and membership organisations, our not for profit group combines detailed sector knowledge with the global reach of the BDO network.

CHARITIES

BDO's charity unit stands apart, which is why many of the larger UK registered charities are coming to us. Like our clients, we recognise the importance of personal service delivered by charity specialists.

EDUCATION

With 20 years of experience in education, our team provides a full offering of audit and advisory services and contributes to the sector through participation in sector conferences and publications including our own HEI and FEC bulletins which are published throughout the year.

SOCIAL HOUSING

Registered providers of social housing continue to face new challenges from changing regulation and finding new ways to fund development of housing. At BDO, our experienced specialists work with a diverse range of registered providers. Our first response to your needs will be to listen and then respond with a tailored service to your unique business requirements.

PHILANTHROPY UNIT

BDO has an established specialist team who advise on all aspects of philanthropy. Based in our private client team, we advise not only on charitable tax effective giving, but also personal tax and trusts. We can also assist in identifying and assessing recipient charities, establishing and running grant making, activities, and trustee training.

Please arrive 15 minutes before the start time to register.
Breakfast is provided prior to the morning seminars.
