Our dedicated charity retail team combines commercial expertise with insights on the latest trends through our Charity Retail Sales Trackers.

With 20 years of experience in education, our team provides a full offering of audit and advisory services and contributes to the sector through participation in sector conferences and publications, including our own HEI and FEC bulletins which are published throughout the year.

SOCIAL HOUSING

Registered providers of social housing continue to face new challenges from changing regulation and finding new ways to fund development of housing. At BDO, our experienced specialists work with a diverse range of registered providers. Our first response to your needs will be to listen and then respond with a tailored service to meet your unique business requirements.
