

Company Secretariat (CoSec) Community

The Company Secretariat (CoSec) role is critical to effective governance. CoSecs have multifaceted responsibilities, requiring them to wear multiple 'hats'. When the board and committees are running smoothly, CoSecs are often the unsung heroes - and in some organisations - are only spotlighted when something goes wrong. To help this critical governance community be as effective as possible in their roles and overcome the complex challenges they are faced with, BDO has created a unique CoSec Community; to celebrate and support this critical function.

Our CoSec Community

Whether you're looking to stay updated on the evolving governance landscape, gain access to relevant insights and best practice, or simply connect with peers, our CoSec Community provides an open and supportive environment facilitating meaningful conversations.
